Alderney Wildlife Trust

Senior Volunteering
INFORMATION SHEET

DUKE OF EDINBURGH PROGRAMME

Not sure where to start with your DofE? Contact our education team to discuss your options. If we can't help, we may know someone who can.

Fishing • Social Media • Film & Videography • Science

Social media can be a great platform to raise awareness, be creative, and run campaigns for good causes, including raising vital funds. Learn how to use social media as a tool.

Communications • Design • Creative Content • Campaigns

SOCIAL MEDIA

FUNDRAISING

Learn how to organise and run a fundraising campaign

Help organise one of our events, create one of your own, or volunteer at a Jumble, Bingo, Quiz or Swish.

Learn about conservation skills and tool use, whilst learning more about Alderney's natural environment.

- Plant trees and clean beaches
- Removal of sour fig and other invasive species
- Every Saturday 2-4PM

PRACTICAL SKILLS

EVENTS & OUTREACH

- Build skills by supporting Forest School and Wilder Beach
- Gain experience through public engagement events like surveys, marine tank sessions, science talks and more

Transferrable skills, work experience and career development

Volunteering can help provide experience that can boost your confidence when looking for future work. Voluntary roles on a CV can show that you are committed, willing, and have some skills that may be transferrable to a variety of jobs and careers.

- What is a transferrable skill? Leadership, people skills, customer service, data, practical skills, risk assessments, safeguarding, fundraising
- Branch out - keep an open mind. Ask yourself what skills you might like to learn If you aren't sure which voluntary role might suit you, test and trial
- Think about the future, discuss with friends, teachers, parents, and organisations, you are not alone

Contact our education team to have a chat about what options you might like to try:

teamwilder@alderneywildlife.org